FRANKFURT

One of Germany's largest Christmas markets. The elaborate and creative stand decorations, the scenic surroundings on the Römerberg and St Paul's Square and the huge Christmas tree combine to also make it one of Germany's most beautiful.

CHRISTMAS MARKET WITH HISTORY

This traditional market is located in the heart of Frankfurt and surrounded by half-timbered houses. The market has a long tradition: It's history can be traced back to the year 1393. In the meantime much has changed, but even today the Frankfurter Christmas market is one of the most beautiful markets of its kind in Hessen. The decorated stands, which offer a wide range of products, are set up on several squares.

ZURICH

In Zurich you will find many different Christmas markets. Each with its own character and specialties. In the main train station for example, you can admire 7'000 glittering Svarovski-crystals on the 15-metre-high Christmas tree.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Among the various Christmas markets in Zurich there is one to suit each and every taste. A huge range of gifts enchant visitors at the beautifully decorated market stalls. When strolling through the Christmas market a glass of punch for the little ones and mulled wine for the grown-ups as well as warming dishes such as traditional Swiss food like raclette and fondue should not be missed.
